ROADS AND THE STREETS.

The heavy rains of the past week have made sad havoc with some of the roads in town, and although the roads have been repaired by the road workers, their labors have been somewhat destroyed by the late heavy rain, and the work has to be done over again. Newtown Street, from the liberty pole up to the school house, at the head of the street, presents a fearful picture of filth and neglect, Saturday and Sunday, and will always be just as it is if suffered to be washed out every rain that falls.

If our memory is not at fault we believe that we can truthfully say that Newtown Street has not been worked, north of the liberty pole, since our day into the town. Now the tax payers on the street pay for the working of the roads of the town, and they are attended to and kept in repair, but the principal street, the very locality that is used as much, and in some instances more, than any portions of the town, excepting the road to Sandy Hook, and the street leading to the rubber works, is left unattended. To us this seems very strange. The street needs filling in with good gravel, which could, and should be done, without injury to any resident, or property holder on the street. Whenever it is done it will be a positive benefit to the town. As the present condition of the street is the cause of considerable comment, we have ventured these few lines, with hope that if nothing else can bring about a change, that some of our public-spirited men would urge a special town meeting, and see what the people would do.

OUR LIBRARY.

Our readers are no doubt aware that we have a library in town. Now this library cannot live on air. It needs help. It seems too bad to have it die out. Cannot some one suggest a way to help it? Why don't our Dramatic Club give one of their celebrated entertainments, or a sociable, in Sanford's Hall? We would like to hear from some of our citizens on this subject.

ARRIVALS AND DEPARTURES.

Marcus C. Hawley, and lady, returned home Saturday evening, from their visit to the West.

Misses Florence and Mamie Glover returned Saturday evening, from New York city, after a week's absence.

Mrs. Josiah Booth arrived home Saturday, from Chicago. During her absence she visited her friends in Minnesota, and other places. Miss Annie Fairman, who accompanied her, still remains for a short time in Chicago.

Mrs. L. O. Homer returned home from an extended visit to Ashburnham, Mass., Nov. 9th.

Mr. J. K. Botsford and wife, of Chicago, who have been the guests of Russell Wheeler Esq., for the past week, returned home, stopping at Washington for a few weeks. Newtown is Mr. Botsford's native place.

Lillie and George Judson, of Matten-wan, N. Y., are the guests of Mr. Wm. H. Hoy.

Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Prindle were absent from town last week, visiting their friends in Middlebury, Watertown and Waterbury.

THE OIL TIMES.

We are indebted to Mr. H. L. Beers, of Elenburg, Penn., for copies of the above-named excellent paper, and clip two notices, one of which brings to our mind the fact that when Mr. Beers and lady returned home we announced their departure in the Bee, as H. L. Peck and wife, which was our mistake. Mr. Beers, the editor, Mr. Campbell will please accept our thanks.

H. L. Beers, the sprightly manager of W. C. Allison & Co's warehouses in this place, returned from a two days trip to Newtown, Conn., a few days ago, much improved in health and spirits.—Oct. 28th.

H. L. Beers will accept our acknowledgments for a copy of the Newtown (Conn.) Bee. It displays all the vivacity so characteristic of its title. It wouldn't be a healthy thing to sit down on.—Nov. 2d.

THE FELLOWSHIP MEETING.

As previously announced, a fellowship meeting will be held in the Congregational church, Tuesday, Nov. 20th, commencing at 10.30 A. M., and continuing to 4.30 P. M. There will be a recess for collation. A very interesting season is anticipated, and the meeting will be attended by members of all denominations. This meeting will be followed by UNION meetings every evening, and probably every afternoon, during the week, at the Congregational church, conducted by able ones of different denominations from various parts of the State. The public and all interested in the good work, are earnestly invited to be present.

AMPUTATION.

On Tuesday, Nov. 6th, Mr. Samuel B. Hawley, of Zour district, whose leg was operated upon a short time ago, had to submit to amputation. Dr. W. C. White performed the operation, removing the limb just above the knee. Mr. Hawley recovered nicely as could be expected from the shock, and at present writing is doing much better than could possibly be hoped for. His age (67 years) is very much against his recovery, after such a severe ordeal, but with an unimpaired constitution, the Doctor hopes for the very best results.

A BAD CASE.

We clip from the New Milford Day of last week a notice of a man who visited this town on two occasions, and lectured on the subject of temperance, in the Congregational church. He had a fair audience, and was highly spoken of. The other lecture took place in Sandy Hook, at the Methodist church. Last August a man giving his name as C. E. Haves, came to New Milford, announced himself as a Unitarian minister, a temperance lecturer, etc., and brought a letter from a minister up this road warmly recommending him. He was accordingly received with kindness and permitted to preach in the Methodist church and lecture in the Congregational church. The South Norwalk Sentinel of last week announces that he was drunk on board the New York steamer last week Tuesday and was found playing enchere. If he is indeed such an impostor, he should be passed around that others may not be deceived by him.

SHARPSHOOTING.

Our Rifle Teams are having some pretty sharpshooting in the shooting gallery on West street.

Our Kansas Representatives have shown wonderful skill in hitting the targets.

The Newtown boys will have to practice up a good deal, or the laurels will be carried out of town.

We are pleased with the success of our Kansas friend, who also excels as a K. P. P.

A COMPLIMENT TO AARON SANFORD.

Tuesday afternoon sheriff-elect Sanford received a telegram from some friends in Bridgeport, informing him that a number of his friends would visit him that evening, accompanied by the Wheeler & Wilson Band, and would be on hand by 8 o'clock.

Mr. Sanford immediately conferred with Mr. Douglas Fairchild, of the Central House, and preparations were made to receive the guests in a most sumptuous manner, as was fully demonstrated by the tables that were prepared for them. It excelled the feast prepared for the convention held on the 20th ult.

The tables were handsomely decorated and draped with flags, and with its beautiful glossy walls presented a picture of loveliness. Everything exhibited the care and attention that Mr. and Mrs. Fairchild had bestowed upon the arrangements for the entertainment. In their preparations they were assisted by Mr. D. M. Reynolds, who on this, as on other occasions, showed his knowledge of keeping a hotel table well supplied. All the necessary arrangements completed, nothing remained to be done but to wait the arrival of the guests.

At 8 o'clock the guests arrived at the depot, from whence the line of march was taken to the residence of Mr. Sanford, the procession being headed by Wheeler & Wilson's Band, discoursing fine music. Col. Sumner, mounted upon Mr. Sanford's fine horse, took the lead, and as the procession moved along it presented a grand sight, as many of the persons in line carried lighted torches.

Upon reaching Mr. Sanford's hall was made. The band played, after which Mr. Sanford appeared and made a speech, thanking his friends for their somewhat sudden visit. Judge Lockwood, of Bridgeport, also delivered a speech, which was well received.

After the serenade and addresses were concluded the procession re-formed, and marched up street to the Central House, and soon the parlors and principal rooms were filled, with gentlemen of distinction from Bridgeport, Stratford, Fairfield, Westport, Norwalk and Trumbull.

The band, consisting of nineteen pieces, occupied the main parlors, and played several beautiful airs, that were listened to with evident delight by all those who were fortunate enough to hear them. Nothing more need be said of this excellent musical corps; we cannot add anything to their fame.

When the time arrived to investigate the turkey sixty-four persons sat down to the three tables, and they became satisfied others took their places until all of the party were filled with the good things prepared for them.

Speeches were made by several gentlemen, among them Col. Sumner, Messrs. Beach and Judd, of Stratford, Rejaya, of Westport, Mr. Norman, town clerk of Bridgeport, and others. All the speakers were loud in their praise of the sheriff-elect, of the genuineness of which there could be no doubt. It must have been very flattering to Mr. Sanford, and his many Newtown friends. At the close of the feast the guests retired to the street, a fire was formed, and a flying visit paid to Father McCarthan, in front of whose house the procession counter-marched, and returned to the depot, taking the train for home at 11.30 P. M.

Owing to the limited time and space at our command we are not able to give but a mere outline of this most brilliant affair. It was an eventful night to staid old Newtown, and one that will be remembered with pleasure.

Many members of the Bridgeport press were present.

"TUBERS"

A few weeks since, a farmer from "over the river" was in one of our Sandy Hook stores, boasting of the quantity and quality of his potato crop. Estimating the crop by what he had gathered, he was sure of three hundred bushels of "tubers." Wishing to secure some for their customers for Winter use, the proprietors of the store made a bargain with him to deliver them fifty bushels, as they sent for them. In due time word was sent him to "bring on his tubers," but no "tubers" were seen. After a few days he made his appearance at the store and coolly informed them that he had no "tubers" to spare—that "neighbor D's chickens had eaten them all up," and if they wanted them must "sue for them." Knowing that he had been sending his potatoes to another market, where he got a few cents more per bushel for them, they put the matter into Lawyer Wilson's hands for settlement. Mr. Wilson settled with the "parrot-money-us farmer" for five dollars, and left him to figure out how much more he realized for his crop than he would have done had he acted squarely, and had his neighbor kept his chickens shut up.

THE CLOSING EXERCISES OF THE NEW-TOWN ACADEMY.

Last Friday morning the closing exercises at the Academy took place in the presence of several visitors, and were highly interesting as reported to us, by those who were present. We present a brief account, which has been handed to us, and regret exceedingly that because of a press of business we were not able to be present, so as to have given a more extended report. We are, however, very much gratified to note that the Principal, Rev. Mr. Hoyt, assisted by Miss Della Botsford have, by their unremitting attention, secured for this excellent institution a high reputation, and that it is growing into public favor very rapidly, and with the increased facilities that the Rev. Mr. Hoyt contemplates offering to children just entering school (the establishment of a primary department) will no doubt meet with much favor, and we hope to be able to state such to be the fact in some future issue.

The standing of the pupils as determined by their punctuality, deportment and scholarship was read. There were, as usual, two grades in all. The following pupils were in the first grade having received less than two demerits:

Frederick R. Lake,
Frederick H. Terrill,
Mary H. Sherman,
Minnie M. Wood,
Annie F. Weed.

The Principal, in the course of his remarks, stated that 43 pupils in all had been connected with the school during the term, of whom, however, only 21, or about half, were full paying pupils, and that it was in contemplation to fit up a room for children, and provide an experienced teacher for them, at the nominal cost of $1 per term, to meet expenses. He spoke in terms of praise of his assistant, Miss Botsford, and of the facility and almost perfect deportment of the pupils.

THE BURLINGTON AND MISSOURI EXCURSION.

MEETING OF THE EXCURSIONISTS AND RESOLUTIONS ADOPTED.

The Lincoln (Nebraska) Daily State Journal of the 28th ult., has the following: LINCOLN, Neb., Oct. 27.—The train from Plattsmouth, yesterday afternoon, brought in a party of over one hundred excursionists. In this party are representative men from Eastern, Central and Southern New York, Vermont, Massachusetts, Connecticut, Rhode Island, and New Jersey. This is the sixth excursion party under the auspices of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad Land department, under the direction of Messrs. William Call, Jr., of Haverstraw, New York, and John Newman, of Troy, New York, agents of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad Company. The party represents intelligence, energy, and wealth, and is a worthy acquisition to our State. An important meeting of representatives of this party was held at the office of the Burlington and Missouri River Railroad Land Department this morning. The meeting was called to order by Mr. O. K. Rice, of Greenfield, Washington County, New York. Mr. S. W. Crosby, of New York, was chosen chairman and Mr. O. K. Rice, secretary.

A committee was then formed, with instructions to prepare and present for adoption resolutions expressive of the purpose and sentiments of the body. The following gentlemen were appointed on this committee:

M. C. Remington, Weedsport, N. Y., chairman; William Robinson, Cambridge, N. Y.; Joseph M. Rattell, Saratoga, N. Y.; Silas Abbott, Pawling, N. Y.; G. G. Deffries, Newark, N. J.; Philo Clark, Newburgh, Conn.

This committee retired, prepared and reported the following resolutions, which were unanimously adopted:

WHEREAS, The circumstances attending our journey from our Eastern homes on the sixth excursion of this season from New York City, Albany and Troy, under the auspices of the Burlington & Missouri River R. R. Land Dept., which arrived in Lincoln yesterday afternoon, Oct. 26th, have been so ordered as to challenge our highest approval. We are pleased to give expression to our gratification in the following resolutions:

Resolved, That we cheerfully acknowledge the liberal terms for transportation, and the first class accommodations provided for us by the management of the Erie, Albany & Susquehanna, the Michigan Central, the Chicago, Burlington & Quincy, and the Burlington & Missouri River railroads, together with the cordial courtesies extended to us by various officials of these railroads.

Resolved, That we heartily subscribe to the faithful fulfillment of all the pledges made to us by Mr. William Call, Jr., of Haverstraw, N. Y., on behalf of the Burlington & Missouri River Railroad Land Department, by whom all our wants have been so completely anticipated as to make the entire trip thoroughly enjoyable.

Resolved, That, while we have been gratified with what we have seen of the different parts of Illinois and Iowa through which we have passed, we are more than pleased with what we have seen of the State of Nebraska, and cannot commend it too highly as a home for our enterprising young men in these States. That we entertain the most favorable impressions of the energy and enterprise of the beautiful city of Lincoln, the capital city of beautiful Nebraska.

S. W. Crosby, President.
O. K. Rice, Secretary.

P. S.—The above was the last contemplated excursion for this season, but the agents, moved by the urgent demand, have determined upon one more, which will leave New York city for Lincoln, Nebraska, on Tuesday, Nov. 27, 1877.

We welcome to our exchange list the Naugatuck Enterprise, a new weekly paper, just issued. It is a very neatly printed sheet, and its first appearance evinces a dash that must be pleasing to the citizens of Naugatuck, whom we hope will give its editor, and publisher a hearty support.

The remains of Mr. F. W. Platt were brought from Waterbury to this town, yesterday, and buried. This gentleman was well known in this town, and was a son of our respected townsman, Mr. Wm. Platt. Mr. Platt leaves a wife and three children. He was only ill about three weeks, and his death was a surprise to many.

Prof. Ten Broeck has labored indefatigably to bring the Opera of "Esther" before the people of Danbury, in a manner creditable to all who are interested in it, and he has been greatly assisted in his efforts by the careful attention paid to his instructions by the young ladies and gentlemen who have taken part in the rehearsals.

Mr. Edwin Clark left a sample of russett apples at our office, that he saved in a perfect condition from last year's gathering, but some one "hooked" them. With such pull-backs as these, upon an editor's income, how is he to thrive? Mr. Clark has our thanks for his remembrance. If we could catch the fellow that took them we would run a stinger into him.

CORNS, &c.

Language is almost inadequate to express the torture endured by those unhappy mortals who suffer from these universal afflictions; the twinging corns and painful bunions, the torturing nail, &c., and to say that humanity was discouraged, would we fear be only too true. Yet there are exceptions, and these are those who have used Dr. Briggs' All-igator and Curative, the great modern discovery for all diseases of the feet, no matter how severe or seemingly incurable the case may be. The thousands who have been benefited by their use, bear witness to their efficiency. A trial is all that is needed to convince the most skeptical. Sold by S. S. Dunning.

POSITIVE RESULTS. There are numerous remedies that cure sometimes and become trusted as useful, but none have ever proved so efficient—cured so many and such remarkable cases—as Dr. Ayer's medicines.

The Cherry Pectoral has restored great numbers of patients who were believed to be hopelessly affected with consumption.

Ague Cure breaks up chills and fever quickly and surely.

Ayer's Compound Extract of Sassa-parilla eradicates scrofula and impurities of the blood, cleanses the system and restores it to vigorous health. By its timely use many troublesome disorders that cause a decline of health are expelled or cured.

Ayer's Pills and their effects are too well known everywhere to require any commendation from us here.—Scranton (Pa.) Times.

Listen! What do you hear? A cough in the throat; perhaps bronchitis; it may be a recent cold; it may be an effort of nature to clear the bronchia; it may be the deep hollow cough, soon companion of that terrible monster consumption. In either case the free use of Briggs' Throat and Lung Healer, is described, will banish all kinds of cough and cure bronchitis certain, and all the early symptoms of consumption. Briggs' remedies sold by S. S. Dunning.
